JEANNE ROBERTSON TO APPEAR ON THE GRAND OLE OPRY 7/11-7/12

NASHVILLE, TN—July 7, 2014—Humorist Jeanne Robertson will appear on a segment of the Grand Ole Opry during the July 11-12th shows. The Grand Ole Opry, nearly a 90-year tradition, has played host to legendary musicians and performers, bringing their talents into the homes of devoted listeners and viewers. Other announced entertainers will include Lorrie Morgan, Gene Watson, Sunny Sweeney, Andy Griggs, Jamie Lynn Spears and more! Tune in to listen to what will definitely be a “FABulous” show. To listen to Jeanne on the Opry live stream of WSM, visit www.opry.com/wsm.

An overnight success nearly half a century in the making, Jeanne Robertson keeps audiences rolling on the floor with laughter. At 70 years young, this former Miss North Carolina stands tall at six-foot-two and has a personality, heart and sense of humor that soar just as high. For years, her witty speeches were mostly limited to conventions and meetings, but with the dawn of the digital age, the world was introduced to Robertson's infectious humor when her YouTube videos suddenly went viral. Visit YouTube.com/JeanneRobertson to get a better glimpse of Jeanne's hilarious brand of comedy.

Now with seven nationally released DVDs, three books, hundreds of hours on SiriusXM satellite radio and over 20.4 million YouTube hits, the demand for Robertson's family-friendly and engaging brand of comedy has grown exponentially. Robertson's real life stories are relatable and memorable, making her humor stand out from the typical comedian.

Robertson is the embodiment of the classic, sophisticated Southern woman. Even in her seventh decade, she shows no signs of slowing down. This refined humorist brings delightful Southern charm and loads of laughter to each performance. Jeanne Robertson's comedy is sharp and witty, and always leaves a lasting impression.
